

BACK STREET BOYS

Dan and John live in Back Street - they're the Back Street boys.

Back Street is long and wide. There are lots of cars and buses driving along the road, and there are big houses, shops and buildings everywhere.

Dan and John are walking along Back Street just now.

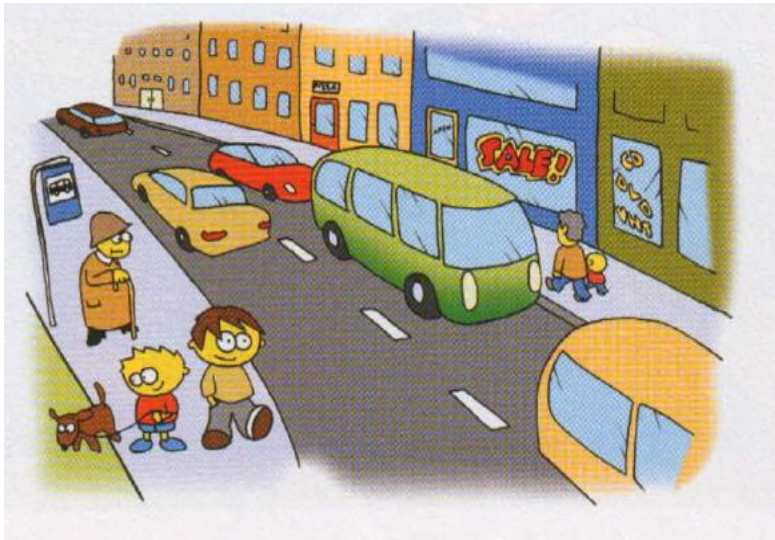

They have a dog with them - it's John's dog Spot. Spot is quite old.

There's an old woman standing behind them. She's waiting for a bus.

A man is walking along Back Street with his little son as well.

John likes walking with Spot. Usually they walk along Back Street to the park, where Spot likes running around. But today the Back Street boys are not taking Spot to the park – they are going swimming. But Spot never swims. He doesn't like swimming.
